UM DAYS SETS RECORDS

MISSOULA--

A record 650 students attended UM Days at the University of Montana this year and a record $64,050 in scholarship money was awarded, according to Deanna Whiteside Sheriff, director of University Relations and coordinator of UM Days.

Students from over 100 high schools in Montana and several other states visited the campus, attended classes, and competed for scholarships April 5-7.

Eighty-five students were awarded freshman scholarships ranging from $400 to $1,000 from the Fox or Hammond Scholarship Funds.

Three students received $500 art scholarships and three students won $500 drama/dance scholarships.

Twenty-two students won music scholarships in piano, voice, strings and other instruments.
